EARLY ITALIAN LITERATURE

With Critical Introductions. By ERNESTO GRILLO, D.Litt., LL.D., Director of Italian Studies in the University of Glasgow. Volume I. Pre-Dante Poetical Schools. Demy 8vo. Price 10s. 6d. net. (Volume II. Prose. In the press.)

"The book is the production of a scholar."—Athenaeum.

SCIENCE AND THEOLOGY THEIR COMMON AIMS AND METHODS

By F. W. WESTAWAY. Royal 8vo. Price 15s. net.

"This book travels through wide spheres of human knowledge in philosophy, science, and religion. There are, indeed, few branches of science which Mr. Westaway does not touch upon; and he successfully maintains throughout the work a high standard of accuracy and interest. As a survey of the main results of modern science it is admirable. . . . Mr. Westaway is an able and lucid writer."—New Statesman.

" . . . An introduction to the study of Philosophy as well as of Science and Theology. It is, moreover, a remarkably well informed introduction to all these disciplines. And its limpid clearness is an irresistible attraction."—Expository Times.

SCIENTIFIC METHOD ITS PHILOSOPHY AND ITS PRACTICE

By F. W. WESTAWAY. New Edition. Demy 8vo. Price 10s. 6d. net.

"Mr. Westaway has a singularly acute and active mind which has engaged itself with almost all branches of human study; and he has the rarest of all gifts among English-speaking philosophers, that of directness and lucidity of style. The problems of metaphysics; probability, and causation; the higher principles of physics; space, time, and infinity; the origin of the earth, and of the universe; the evolution of the animal species, and of man; life's consciousness; instinct and intuition, all these are treated with an assured knowledge, a candour and a lucidity which will, we think, have a real fascination for any intelligent enquirer."—Times.

LIFE AND ITS MAINTENANCE A SYMPOSIUM ON BIOLOGICAL PROBLEMS OF THE DAY

The contributors include: W. M. Bayliss, F. G. Hopkins, E. Margaret Hume, A. R. Cushny, K. J. J. Mackenzie, E. J. Russell, R. G. Stapledon, A. S. Horne, Sydney J. Hickson, A. G. Tansley, Lt.-Col. Martin Flack, R. C. McLean, F. W. Oliver, H. M. Vernon, Henry Kenwood. Price 5s. net.

"One of the most interesting books of the year."—Spectator.
"These essays are excellently written, and full of direct or indirect interest to all of us. We wish this symposium the success it deserves."—British Medical Journal.

MEDICINAL HERBS AND POISONOUS PLANTS

By DAVID ELLIS, D.Sc., Ph.D., F.R.S.E., Professor of Botany in the Royal Technical College, Glasgow. Fully illustrated with diagrams. Crown 8vo. Price 2s. 6d. net.

"It has rarely been our experience to meet with such a delightfully written book on medicinal plants."—Medical World.

TIDAL LANDS A STUDY OF SHORE PROBLEMS

By ALFRED E. CAREY, M.Inst.C.E., Fellow of the Royal Geographical, Geological, and Chemical Societies, and F. W. OLIVER, F.R.S., Quain Professor of Botany in University College, London. Copiously illustrated with 29 full-page plates in addition to figures in the text. Demy 8vo. Price 12s. 6d. net.

"To the engineer, the subjects discussed in this work are of the greatest possible importance, and whether he may be interested in the facts here recorded from the point of view of river control, or of the reclamation of the foreshore, or of the arrest of sand dunes, he will find much matter for serious thought and consideration, and many details likely to aid him in his undertaking."—Times Engineering Supplement.

A HISTORY OF THE UNITED KINGDOM

By ROBERT S. RAIT, C.B.E., M.A., Historiographer Royal for Scotland; Professor of Scottish History and Literature in the University of Glasgow, formerly Fellow and Tutor of New College, Oxford.

IN TWO VOLUMES.

Volume 1. ENGLAND AND SCOTLAND TO THE UNION OF 1707.

Volume 2. THE UNITED KINGDOM, 1707-1919

THE SOCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL HISTORY OF SCOTLAND FROM THE EARLIEST TIMES TO THE UNION

By JAMES MACKINNON, Ph.D., D.D., Regius Professor of Ecclesiastical History in the University of Edinburgh. Demy 8vo. Price 9s. net.

"Professor Mackinnon's new work admirably fills a gap in Scottish historical literature, and provides the student with a useful guide to the main outlines of the subject. . . . The book is pleasantly written, and wears its learning with an easy grace."—Scotsman.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE HISTORY, INDUSTRIES, AND SOCIAL LIFE OF SCOTLAND

By LOUIS A. BARBÉ, Officier d'Académie: Author of In Byways of Scottish History, etc. Demy 8vo. With Frontispiece. Price 10s. 6d. net.

"The researches of M. Barbé into the social history of Scotland are of the keenest possible interest."—Pall Mall Gazette.

MARGARET OF SCOTLAND AND THE DAUPHIN LOUIS

An Historical Study based mainly on Original Documents preserved in the Bibliothèque nationale. By LOUIS A. BARBÉ, B.A., Officier d'Académie. Demy 8vo. Price 6s. net.

"Mr. Barbé's fine monograph . . . bears witness to the most scholarly research. . . . He has from the point of view of the average reader a still better thing to offer them in a charm of style that makes of the facts a vivid and moving piece of fifteenth century life."—Outlook.

IONA

A HISTORY OF THE ISLAND. With descriptive notes by F. M. M'NEIL, M.A. Large Crown 8vo. With Illustrations and Maps. Price 3s. 6d. net.

"The author has succeeded in conveying to her readers a sense of the glamour and spell which hangs over Iona, while she has drawn a true and arresting picture of St. Columba and his times. We have no hesitation in recommending thoroughly this admirable handbook."—Aberdeen Free Press.

THE CITY CURIOUS

By JEAN DE BOSSCHERE. Illustrated with Colour-Plates and many Illustrations in Black and White by the author. Re-told in English by F. TENNYSON JESSE. Cr. 4to. Cloth, 10s. 6d. net.

GULLIVER'S TRAVELS

Illustrated with Colour-Plates and Black and White Illustrations by JEAN DE BOSSCHERE. Demy 4to. Cloth, 12s. 6d. net.

AWAKENING

By JOHN GALSWORTHY. Illustrated in Colour and Black and White by R. H. SAUTER. Cr. 4to. Boards, 7s. 6d. net.

A beautiful and tender study of child-life.

OLD ENGLISH FURNITURE AND ITS SURROUNDINGS.

By MACIVER PERCIVAL. Cr. 4to. Cloth. With many Illustrations. 30s. net.

An invaluable handbook, not only for collectors, but also for artists, illustrators, theatrical managers and house decorators, its methodical arrangement rendering it easy to refer to any detail. Pieces fully representative of each period have been chosen, rather than unique or transitional specimens.

THE DOGS OF CHINA AND JAPAN IN NATURE AND ART.

By W. V. F. COLLIER. With 8 Colour-Plates, Reproductions from Chinese and Japanese pictures, scrolls, porcelain, &c. Demy 4to. £2 2s. net.

A history of Eastern dogs and their place in Chinese life, as well as in the Buddhistic religion, their artistic representation, their use as decorations on bronzes, porcelains and pictures, woven materials, &c.

POETRY.

RIGHT ROYAL

By JOHN MASEFIELD. Cr. 8vo. 6s. net. Also a Large Paper Edition limited to 350 copies on English Hand-made Paper, numbered and signed; price 25s. net.

Mr. Masefield's new poem is the story of a steeplechase.

PUBLIC SCHOOL VERSE

An Anthology, 1919-1920. With an Introduction by JOHN MASEFIELD. Cr. 8vo. 3s. 6d. net.

A book of poems selected from the work of boys in seventeen of our great public schools.

ESSAYS, &c.

AND EVEN NOW

By MAX BEERBOHM. Cr. 8vo. 7s. 6d. net.

In this volume are collected twenty of Mr. Beerbohm's recent essays and stories which have never before appeared in book form. They show the "inimitable Max" at his very best, as a master of delicate and subtle humour, an observer of rare insight, and as one of our most exquisite writers of prose.

LIFE AND LITERATURE

By LAFCADIO HEARN. Demy 8vo. 25s.

Essays on out-of-the-way literary subjects of more than ordinary interest. The papers here collected are those most representative of Hearn's individual taste and the adventurous note in his criticism.

CARTAGENA AND THE SINU

By R. B. CUNNINGHAM GRAHAM, Author of "A Brazilian Mystic." Demy 8vo. 15s.

Experiences in the quaint old-world towns and amongst the primitive people of the little-known republic of Colombia. The book has a short historical account of the conquest drawn from original sources.

THE WORKS OF DOSTOEVSKY

New Volume completing the Series.

THE FRIEND OF THE FAMILY.

Translated by CONSTANCE GARNETT. 7s. 6d. net.

THE WORKS OF TURGENEV

Mr. Heinemann has pleasure in announcing that he will publish shortly two new volumes, in Mrs. Garnett's translation, of the works of Ivan Turgenev. These two volumes will include all the stories by Turgenev hitherto untranslated, so, as far as fiction is concerned, the English edition will now be as complete as the Russian. The titles are:—

TWO FRIENDS and other Stories. Ready Autumn, 1920.

KNOCK, KNOCK, KNOCK, and other Stories.

"Mr. Walter Bell has produced a most interesting and valuable book. . . . We commend Mr. Bell's excellent book, with its wealth of new material and its many illustrations and maps, to all who are interested in the history of London."—Spectator. 25s. net.

THE SPHINX.

By OSCAR WILDE. With 10 Illustrations, endpapers, initial letters in color and cover design by ALASTAIR. Demy 4to. 25s. net.

"Alastair has a fine sense of design, a rich and bizarre fancy, and . . . an impressive stateliness of conception."—The Times.

COMPANIONS, FEATHERED, FURRED AND SCALED.

By C. H. DONALD. With 25 Illustrations. 7s. net.

The author of this delightful book has a remarkable gift for "making friends" with birds and animals of all sorts, a gift which, coupled with exceptional opportunities for studying the lives and habits of the denizens of the Himalayas has enabled him to write a book at once entertaining and full of useful and interesting information.

A CAPTIVE AT CARLSRUHE

By JOSEPH LEE. Illustrated with Drawings by the author. Crown 8vo. 7s. 6d. net.

This book describes the varied experience of a year's captivity in the cosmopolitan camp at Carlsruhe and other German prison camps, and will probably prove to be the most complete picture of the difficulties and the diversions of that uneasy phase of life which has so far appeared.

THE BAGGING OF BAGHDAD

By ERNEST BETTS. Illustrated. 7s. 6d. net.

A very real account of the Mesopotamian Campaign. Mr. Betts has the art of description, sketches character cleverly and wins his reader's confidence by the candid way he describes his own exact sensations. His book is as close to the outlook and attitude of the "foot-sloggers" who went through hardships and privations of every kind as a book can be.

TWO BOOKS FOR CHILDREN.

BENGAL FAIRY TALES.

By F. B. BRADLEY-BIRT. With 6 Illustrations in color by ABANINDRANATH TAGORE. Crown 4to.

Mr. Bradley-Birt has collected these stories during a long residence in India, having in most cases heard them at first hand from the native professional "Story-tellers," and in translating them into English he has wonderfully preserved the atmosphere of the original versions. 15s. net.

PETER'S PENCIL.

Written and Illustrated by PHYLLIS MORRIS.

Those who were privileged to read this book in MS. were unanimous in saying that it is the most original and refreshing children's story since "Alice in Wonderland." Peter falls asleep while drawing and all the things he has drawn "become real" while retaining their own peculiarities and anatomical or structural deficiencies. "Peter's" drawings appear in the book, which is one that will afford unusual entertainment to all children. 7s. net.

"We would gladly say Macte! to the begetter of a new era of Yorkshire dialect literature; but that shepherd's voice is now silent, and the Craven dales will know his warm smile and his swift journeys on the pedalled wheel no more. To hundreds of Yorkshiremen his death was a personal loss, and many will regret that the scholar who found his most appreciated work in the production of dialect literature has drawn his last bow. If there be knowledge of mundane things in the great beyond, it will be some joy amidst fragrant and piercing memories to know that the shaft was truly feathered and has found its mark."—Times.

PUTNAM'S NEW BOOKS

The DIARY of OPAL WHITELEY. Just published.

With an introduction by VISCOUNT GREY OF FALLODON, K.G. 320 pages. Cloth. 7s. 6d. net.
"A book full of beauty and equally full of meaning . . . a fascinating picture of the child mind, and is brimful of suggestion to the philosopher."—Observer.

VISIONS AND BELIEFS IN THE WEST OF IRELAND. Ready now.

Collected and arranged by LADY GREGORY. With two Essays and Notes by W. B. YEATS. 2 vols. Cloth. 22s. 6d. net.
"We have learned to be afraid of the dream life; but the Irish can dwell at ease in the borderland. . . . So these tales not only survive, but grow: and Lady Gregory has collected them alive and makes them live for us, if only we can imaginatively throw ourselves into the state of those who make them. . . . This book must be of great value."—Times.

THE BAIRNSFATHER CASE. Just Published.

By Captain BRUCE BAIRNSFATHER and W. A. MUTCH. With about 60 original illustrations by Captain BAIRNSFATHER. 300 pages. Cloth. 7s. 6d. net.
Bruce Bairnsfather takes the reader behind the scenes and unfolds with whimsical and inimitable humour a most intimate life picture of the making of an artist through years of struggle and determination pitted against seemingly insuperable odds.

OLD SEED ON NEW GROUND. Ready now.

By Rev. the Hon. JAMES ADDERLEY. With 12 Cartoons by Low. 7s. 6d. net.
"Canon Adderley's very modern and original version of the Parables may shock the unco' guid, but it is full of the sound stuff of Christianity. It recognises that the Almighty has a sense of humour."—Daily Express.

MOTHER GOOSE. Ready now.

Profusely illustrated in colour and in black and white by E. BOYD SMITH. Text carefully collated and verified by LAWRENCE ELMENDORF, M.A., Ph.D. 21s. net.
An attempt to produce a complete and satisfactory edition of the great Nursery Classic. The book is crowded with enchanting pictures, and the text as complete as appreciative care and scholarship can make it. A perfect present for a child.

SEVEN O'CLOCK STORIES. Ready shortly.

By ROBERT GORDON ANDERSON, author of "The Little Chap," &c. Profusely illustrated by E. BOYD SMITH. Probable price, 10s. 6d. net.
The grace, beauty of expression, and simplicity of style which distinguish Mr. Anderson's books for older folk, is vitalised in this collection of bed-time stories for children. A beautiful gift book.

THE WANDERING JEW. Ready this week.

By E. TEMPLE THURSTON. The Book of the Play now appearing at the New Theatre. In two editions. Cloth and Paper, 6s. and 3s. 6d. net respectively.

WHEN THE BLOOD BURNS. Ready now.

By E. W. SAVI, Author of "Banked Fires," &c. Cloth. 384 pages. 7s. 6d. net.
A strong sex novel, delicately treated, with the scene laid in India and England, and taking its title from the well-known quotation from Hamlet.

A journal of quiet adventure in Alaska. By ROCKWELL Kent. Profusely illustrated from drawings by the Author. Art canvas. 217 pages. 30s. net.
"Easily the most remarkable book to come out of America since 'Leaves of Grass.' . . . He lived the life of a pioneer, but with a poet's abrupt and intense love for the stark, natural beauties of his island. His compositions and line are alike astonishingly evocative of an emotion which, while definitely earth-born, has no ending outside the stars and the cold white spaces of his beloved Alaska."—New Statesman.

RADIANT MOTHERHOOD. Just published.

A Book for those who are creating the future. By MARIE CARMICHAEL STOPES, D.Sc., Ph.D. 256 pages. Cloth. 6s. net.
This book will be of unique help to the modern husband and wife by separating clearly (1) the nature-imposed difficulties from (2) those entirely artificial, and (3) those which are to-day general, but which by knowledge can be completely conquered. The author creates round the subject the light of beauty and joy springing from true understanding.

The CONTROL of PARENTHOOD. Just published.

By Prof. J. ARTHUR THOMSON, M.A., LL.D., Prof. LEONARD HILL, M.B., F.R.S., the Rev. DEAN INGE, C.V.O., D.D., Mr. HAROLD COX, Dr. MARY SCHARLIEB, C.B.E., M.D., M.S., SIR RIDER HAGGARD, K.B.E., Rev. PRINCIPAL GARVIE, M.A., D.D., Rev. F. B. MEYER, B.A., D.D., and Dr. MARIE STOPES, D.Sc., Ph.D., F.R.S. With an Introduction by the BISHOP OF BIRMINGHAM. Edited by the Rev. JAMES MARCHANT, C.B.E., LL.D., F.L.S., Secretary of the National Birth-Rate Commission, &c. Cloth, 320 pp. 7s. 6d. net.
"The subject is of immense importance, and it is well that it should be treated from many sides with this insight and restraint."—Yorkshire Post.

FIGHTING SPORTS.

By Captain L. FITZ-BARNARD.

Demy 8vo. Cloth. Illustrated from original paintings in colour and in half-tone from rare photographs and prints. 21s. net.

Captain Fitz-Barnard has had practical experience of all fighting sports and is an acknowledged expert, consequently the volume is unique in every way, and is without doubt the greatest book on fighting ever written.

COCKING.—That ancient and royal sport is extensively dealt with, and this part of the book must be recognised as the standard work on the subject. Man-fighting—Bull-fighting—Dog-fighting—Buffalo-fighting—Ram-fighting—Elephant-fighting—Bird and Insect fighting and divers fighting sports all figure in this remarkable volume. It must arouse the interest of the whole sporting world, so that no sportsman's library will be complete without it.

Illustrated prospectus will be sent on application.

THE MYSTERY OF MORMONISM.

By STUART MARTIN.

Demy 8vo. Cloth. Fully illustrated from rare photographs. 21s. net.

This is a most important and interesting work by an author who has studied the subject in Salt Lake City itself. It is a complete history of one of the most remarkable sects the world has ever known, sanely and soundly told. One cannot help marvelling at the fact that such a body should have displayed the astonishing practical sense and commercial astuteness which enabled them to make in the desert a great and flourishing city. It is a fascinating book and is true in every detail.

FROM WHITEHALL TO THE CASPIAN.

By LT.-Col. FRENCH.

Demy 8vo. Cloth. Fully illustrated by maps and original photographs. 18s. net.

The author of this book was appointed from the Admiralty War Staff to the staff of the Caspian Naval Expedition. Linguistic attainments enabled him to obtain first-hand opinions from the Tartars, Armenians, and Russians in Caucasia and Trans-Caucasia.

One of the many extraordinary feats of the British Royal Navy in getting Naval Command of the Caspian Sea is described. The melancholy results of abandoning the Caucasus and the Caspian to the Red peril of civilization (Bolshevism) are discussed. Readers will learn something of which little has heretofore been known of many obscure campaigns in which British Sailors and Soldiers have laid down their lives for the great cause.
